

Self-declaration for horseback riding at Gåå Turridding

- I take this trip of my own free will and consider myself fit to complete the trip I have signed up for.
- I am aware that riding, traveling around horses, and these horse-riding trips, can involve danger.
- I know that it is forbidden to smoke while riding.
- I will notify the riding leader if I have injuries or illnesses that may affect my ability to ride on this trip.
- I have all the responsibility for damages caused by me due to my carelessness or failure to follow instructions.
- I am responsible for all personal property that I have brought with me on the trip.
- I will treat the horses in a good way and follow the instructions I am given.
- I agree with the safety rules and will follow them in all situations.
- I agree that pictures containing me, or my children taken on this trip can be published on social media or used for posters for later marketing (If this is not desirable, let the tour leader know so that we can take this into account).

By signing up for a riding trip I agree for myself and everyone I sign up for on these terms.

